Tours (France) : la toiture de la gare rénovée

Les ardoises des ailes Est et Ouest ont été déposées et des neuves les remplaceront. Une restauration qui s'inscrit dans la préservation du patrimoine engagé par la SNCF depuis plusieurs années.

We ❤️ The slate origins

The legendary origin of slate as a roofing material centers on Saint Lezin, the French Bishop of Angers. He is said to have improvised protection by arranging, tent-like, slabs of outcropping rock along the pathway. Read more
