Graduated slate roofs – By J. Jenkins

Not all slate is created equal. Being a natural stone mined from Earth, slate comes in many types with many different characteristics. A good place to look at the long history of graduated slate roof is in Scotland, England and Wales.

Bretagne : un audacieux toit en ardoise

C'est à Bruz (Ille-et-Vilaine) que cette maison se situe, dans une zone protégée par les bâtiments de France. Une belle réinterprétation de la longère Bretonne avec un mélange d'ardoise et de bois.
