España : el sector pizarrero mantiene el pulso

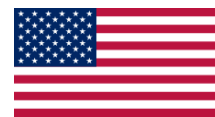

Las canteras de la zona berciana y cabreiesa emplean a 1.600 personas que manufacturaron unas 190.000 toneladas. La industria de la pizarra sigue en el Bierzo con la cabeza alta. Gran parte de la canteras están en el Bierzo y La Cabrera.

Wales : wonderful report about Dinorwic quarry

The sad truth is that there is no work being done here to preserve these structures. It is a crying shame as Dinorwic needs to be preserved for future generations. It represents an important part of Welsh history.

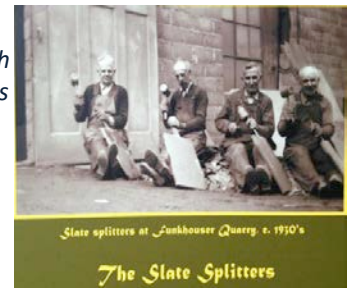

U.S SLATE TODAY

Peach Bottom Slate

Named after an 18th century Pennsylvania rock quarry, Peach Bottom slate was once hailed as the finest building slate in the world. For over a century, immigrant Welsh quarrymen and their descendants helped extract it from the hills along the Mason-Dixon Line.

Toiture en ardoise, toiture écolo !

La toiture en ardoise naturelle est courante dans certaines régions. Ce n'est pas simplement une histoire d'habitude, c'est aussi parce que c'est un matériau écologique très efficace pour les toitures.
